

Global Voices Summit, October 15-16, 2010 Investigative Sessions

Red indicates a session about a Global Women Project

Blue indicates a session related to a United Nations Millennium Development Goal (MDG)

Speaker	Session Description
1. Suzii Paynter Director, Christian Life Commission and Public Policy 	Transforming Community through Christian Citizenship and Public Policy Learn how to broaden your ministry and transform the lives of women in your community through public policy and other active forms of Christian citizenship.
2. Tomi Grover Community and Restorative Justice Director, Texas Baptists Click to Learn More 	Traffick COP Be a Citizen of Purpose: Live with purpose, learn on purpose, and purposefully make a difference; abolish human trafficking in your sphere of influence.
3. Yulia Ubeivole Psychologist Vice President, Beginning of Life Moldova 	Bringing New Life to Human Trafficking Victims Features a Global Women project with partners in Moldova. They seek to restore physical, emotional, and spiritual harmony for women who suffer from trafficking or domestic violence.
4. Dr. Nora Lozano Associate Professor of Theology, Baptist University of the Americas. 	Good News for Women Dr. Lozano offers theologically based strategies that help uncover the stories and voices of women in the Bible. Features a Global Women project in which the Bible study book Good News for Women has been translated and taught to indigenous women in India, Egypt, and Zimbabwe.
5. Dr. Nora Lozano and Patty Villareal Faculty, Latina Leadership Institute Click to Learn More 	Latina Leadership Institute Hear testimonies of Latinas empowered by the love of God, valued by their communities, and equipped to fulfill their unique purposes. Global Women partners with the LLI in Texas held each January to train Hispanic women who serve in various leadership roles in their churches and communities.

6. Trudy Johnson Director of Development, Global Women		Connecting with Global Women Groups and Projects So you want to be a part of our mission and influence the needs of women worldwide? Come explore ways to start a group, go on mission, and get involved.
7. Diana Bridges Intercultural Consultant, Global Women		Developing Intercultural Relationships With increasing opportunities to minister to the peoples of the nations in our own neighborhoods, it is essential to understand basic cultural differences. Learn how to use your gifts of hospitality and welcoming with people who see the world differently from the way we do.
8. Kay McNally Director, The Well House, Ethiopia		Bringing Health and Wholeness to Women in Ethiopia MDG 1: Eradicate Extreme Poverty and Hunger Discover how poverty and hunger affects primarily women and girls. Learn about a Global Women partnership with the Well House in Ethiopia and hear how one project is making a difference in the lives of women.
9. Julie Clawson Author and former Pastor Click to Learn More		Everyday Justice: The Global Impact of our Daily Choices Go on a tour of how our everyday, un-thought-out consumer choices are ridden with moral injustices. From your daily cup of coffee, to produce, to credit cards, to sweaters—every purchase we make has a moral implication. That’s the bad news. The good news is that if we educate ourselves, we can make a difference.
10. Missy Williams Director, Seed Effect with E3 Partners Click to Learn More		Microfinance: Sudan It began with women asking for a sewing machine and turned into a non-profit microfinance organization. Learn how to plant seeds that overcome spiritual and physical poverty by providing access to microloans, education, and discipleship for marginalized women.
10. Dr. Cynthia Rigby Faculty, Austin Presbyterian Theological Seminary Click to Learn More		A Biblical Journey to Social Righteousness MDG 3: Promote Gender Equality and Empower Women Using the foundation of this MDG, learn how to understand ourselves in relation to the world in which we live—knowing our work is related to what we are called to do and who we are called to be, as the body of Jesus Christ.
11. Phoebe Wabera Director, C-CAAL (Christian-Cultural Awareness & Assistance League) Click to Learn More		Refugee Ministry: Burundi Women in Houston As a Rwandan refugee herself, Phoebe understands and ministers to Burundi refugees in the Houston area by providing ETL (English as a Third Language) classes, social, and spiritual programs. You’ll have an opportunity to meet some of the Burundi women that Phoebe has befriended and learn more about this Global Women partnership project.

12. Htoo May Karen Refugee and American Baptist Missionary to Refugees 	 Karen Morrow Cooperative Baptist Fellowship Field Personnel among Refugees	Refugee Ministry: Karen Refugees in North America Our connection with the Karen people of Burma began with pioneer Baptist missionaries Ann and Adoniram Judson. Half of the Karen people are now Christians. Now tens of thousands of Karen refugees are resettling in North America. Learn about a network helping Karen Christian women across the US and about the Global Women partnership project.
13. Ann Wilson Director, Volunteers for China; GW Board President		The Missing Girls of China MDG 4: Reduce Child Mortality Investigate the tragedy of over 80 million little girls missing in China. China's one-child policy and the traditional preference for male children have caused girl babies to be devalued. Find out practical solutions for the problem and how you can get involved.
14. Nomie Derani CBF Field Personnel among Arab Women; GW Board Member		Building Bridges of Friendship with Muslim Women One-tenth of the world's population is Muslim women and they live everywhere on earth. Learn how to relate to Muslim women in your own neighborhood or workplace.
15. Tori Wentz CBF Field Personnel with Medical Missions; GW Board Member		Women of Haiti: Bringing Hope after the Quake MDG 5: Improve Maternal Health; MDG 6: Combat HIV/AIDS, Malaria, and Other Diseases Learn how today's global epidemics affect the health of women and girls. Hear inspiring stories from after the earthquake. Learn about ways Global Women is working with the Birthing Hope partnership with Global Health Action and a CBF project in Haiti.
16. Amanda Ducksworth Coordinator, Pastoral Care Brookwood Medical Center, AL.; Senior Pastor, Columbus Fellowship Church, MS.; GW Board Member		Bringing Invisible Women into the Light MDG 3: Promote Gender Equality and Empower Women This is a call to action against the double standards of race, gender, and economics. Hear inspiring true stories and learn about ways to use your gifts and resources to empower invisible women.
17. Jacky Baker Pintoffs Hope International Click to Learn More		Seeing the Poor through God's Eyes MDG 1: Eradicate Extreme Poverty and Hunger Discover how this MDG affects primarily women and girls and explore "the climate" of global poverty. The learning goal is to see the poor through God's eyes and become a part of projects that effect lasting change.

18. Cathy Waller Carol Rigby Water for All International Click to Learn More	Quenching the Thirst MDG 7: Ensure Environmental Sustainability Discover how bringing safe drinking water is changing a thirsty world. Hear about training courses and partnerships that are focusing on this MDG and impacting communities.